

Volunteer Role

Role: Lobby Host Greeter

The problem this ministry solves is:

Guests are blown away by the level to which they are engaged in a friendly manner that they want to come back and bring a family member or friend.

Why this position matters:

In this role, we are able to put together impact newer guests as they enter the building, to help people grow closer to Jesus.

A win looks like:

Smiling team members are at their position when scheduled and on time. Team members initiating a warm greeting in a way that demonstrates warmth based on the guests level of comfortability.

My servant-leader is:

Sean Richmond

Time commitment:

1 hour on a Sunday morning

Gifts and strengths:

Outgoing, friendly, reliable, smiley!

Specific expectations:

- Show up when you say you will and let your yes be yes (see Matthew 5:37).
- Repeated no call/no shows will be asked to step down from the team.
- Be willing to start at the bottom.

Ideal gift/strength mix and characteristics:

- Willing to increase in knowledge & attention to detail
- Works well independently
- Doesn't mind being front and center
- Focused
- Is passionate about Jesus Christ, knowing they are serving GOD in this role Has a heart for their teammates, lifting them up in prayer and support.
- Flexible, go-with-the-flow attitude
- Conveys Fierce values
- Feels a burden of responsibility for the role
- Teachable and excited to learn new things
- Patient with themselves and others
- Take it further, make it better work ethic
- Compassionate
- Organized
- Follows instruction carefully
- Asks questions
- Finds solutions, not problems